Artists Needed for the 2016 Black Alumni Art Show!

The Virginia Tech Alumni Association is seeking alumni artists to display one to three works of art in the Holtzman Alumni Center for the 2016 Black Alumni Art Show. Work will be showcased from January to May, 2016. Eligible art must be hung with small nails or hooks; no anchors are allowed. For safety and security reasons, nothing is allowed to sit on the ground. Artists need to be able to hang their own work with assistance from the building manager, Jay Whitlow, if needed.

Artists will need to provide the following:

- A signed a release form (for security purposes)
- Digital images of their work for pre-approval
- A short bio which will be included on a public handout. The handout should include the artist bio, the name of the show, and a list of work with prices.

The Alumni Association does not charge any commission for work that is sold. All shows include an opening wine and cheese reception, usually held during the first two weeks of hanging.

If you are interested in displaying your work, please contact Latanya Walker, email latanya@vt.edu or phone (540) 553-2701.
